

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

May 19, 2008

For more information, contact:

Sharon Hamilton, Executive Director, 631-981-1880

HERTLIN GENEROSITY CONTINUES TO ENHANCE SENIORS LIVES

Lake Ronkonkoma, New York: Lillian Hertlin, a long time resident of Lake Ronkonkoma and educator in the Sayville school district recently donated, through the Lillian Hertlin Foundation, ten thousand dollars towards a new vehicle.

This second vehicle will be used to transport residents of Hertlin house where Miss Hertlin resides, to doctor appointments and other scheduled activities including church on Sunday.

Hertlin House is the only independent senior retirement community in Suffolk County providing, in addition to transportation, other amenities such as weekly housekeeping; a continental breakfast every morning and dinner every evening. an activities program offers many socializing opportunities.

Hertlin House is the only retirement community on Long Island rated in the top twenty by New York Magazine.

Tours are available daily.

Retirement living at its best for independent seniors!

Stop in anytime or call for an appointment. find out about our month to month "Try Before You Decide" program.