

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

November 20, 2009

For more information, contact:

Sharon Hamilton, Executive Director, 631-981-1880

Sharon Lee Heberer, Lead Marketing Associate, 631-981-1880

HERTLIN HOUSE CONTINUES ITS COMMITMENT TO PROVIDING THE VERY BEST TO SENIORS LIVING IN SUFFOLK COUNTY

Lake Ronkonkoma, New York: Hertlin House's decision to add a new member to its staff was an easy choice. Rachele Warren's expertise in working with seniors and linking their needs with community services provides the perfect fit for Hertlin House. Meeting the needs and challenges facing today's senior population and their families with compassion, understanding and knowledge is a challenge Ms. Warren readily accepts.

Ms. Warren shares the same mission as Hertlin House which is to encourage independence as residents age in place. Her knowledge will assure resident independence for as long as possible.

With over 20 years of experience plus a Master's Degree in Social Work, Ms. Warren combines the best of both the academic world and the day-to-day practicality facing today's aging population.

"Working with today's seniors, I have had the opportunity to see all of the different changes people can go through as they age," said Ms. Warren. "Hertlin House with all of its wonderful services and amenities, allows seniors to age with independence and dignity."

Ms. Warren

Page 2

Ms. Warren will encourage seniors to plan for their future needs while enjoying all of the advantages and options of living at Hertlin House. She's an expert in the area of community resources available to seniors in Suffolk County.

For more information, please check Hertlin House's website:

www.hertlinhouse.org